Sports Website Offering Free 2011 Melbourne Cup tips

Osbaston, England (pressdeposit) October 27, 2011 - The champagne is officially on ice and racing fans will be opening betting accounts left, right and centre – the 2011 Melbourne Cup is rapidly approaching and we can't wait.

There are few horse racing meetings in the world that come close to matching the Melbourne Cup's level of entertainment and prestige and the 2011 renewal of the showpiece will be no different, Melbourne Cup live stream.

The centrepiece of Flemington's year, the Melbourne Cup is one of the world's most famous race meetings and it really is 'the race that stops a nation.' Each year, thousands of punters mix top hats and tails with the finest thoroughbreds the world has to offer to provide a day of exhilarating action and plenty of fans will be relying on 2011 Melbourne Cup tips to make sure it is a profitable day Down Under.

If you're unlucky enough to be stuck in the office for this year's meeting then there is no need to worry, and you will be able to watch a Melbourne Cup 2011 replay as soon as they cross the line in the handicap showpiece, Melbourne Cup tips.

Some of the world's leading trainers will be targeting the Melbourne Cup and the likes of Aidan O'Brien, Luca Cumani and Sir Michael Stoute all regularly have runners at Flemington, while some of the Far East's greatest horses also head to Australia in a bid to land the richest prize in the game.

In 2010 the race was won by French raider Americain with the mighty So You Think back in third in what was a fascinating renewal of the Melbourne showpiece.

What will the race hold in 2011? Will Americain be able to make it back-to-back successes in the race? Will one of the European raiders be able to take the prize home?
